

The Marfield Prize

National Award for Arts Writing

Entries must be received by October 1, 2016

Books must be nonfiction titles written in English by a single, living author, originally published in the United States in 2016.

We seek art history and criticism, biographies and memoirs, and essays.

Anthologies, creative works of fiction or poetry, books for children, exhibition catalogs, and self-published books are not eligible.

Books scheduled to be published before December 31, 2016, may be sent in galley form.

All submitted material becomes the property of the Arts Club of Washington. Please do not include promotional materials.
